

Further instructions for the Role Play

Remember that this is only a part of the examination; you will also need to submit your individual assignments.

This role play is designed so we hopefully can discuss, learn and have fun. The Role Play will end in a document, but of course this is more of a discussion exercise given time limitations etc.

Please note that this schedule is somewhat tentative in its content. Start and end-times and also rooms are set though.

Wednesday May 28th

ROOM all day: Sydney Alrutz

09.00-09.15 Participants take their seats

09.15-09.25 Introduction from Malin

09.25-10.15 Presentations from the different groups.

Each group should prepare a short (max 5 min) introductory presentation focusing on the most important issues for the country in relation to the SDG's. Each group-member should also present herself by name and role in the negotiations.

10.15-10.30 BREAK and informal mingling and discussions

10.30-11.00 General discussion concerning the SDG's

11.00-11.45 Special task forces are assigned to write the first draft of one SDG per group. This draft should then be brought back by each member to their country group and discussed over lunch. Feedback is then taken back to the task forces.

11.45-12.45 LUNCH BREAK in country groups

12.45- 13.30 Final suggestions for goals are drafted by the different groups

13.35-14:30 First draft is presented and discussed in Sydney (plenum). The different task forces should bring their draft on a USB and in printed versions

14.30-15:00 Decisions are taken on the drafts

15:00-16:00 Discussions concerning the role play, vote on best group performance and evaluations.

16.30 Optional;-) PIC NIC by the little pond beside the big yellow building in the botanical garden
