

Actors and Strategies for Change—Towards Global Sustainabilities 2014

Workshop 1 Examination: March 10

Purpose:

- To have reflected on his/her own role in the causes and solutions of issues of sustainable development;
- Give an account of, and be able to evaluate, the strategies, room to maneuver and limitations of different societal actors in striving toward a sustainable society;
- Be able to discuss individual/actors perspectives compared to structural/system perspectives on cultural change.

This workshop's activity will, in part, consist of an examination task. Please prepare for this examination by thoroughly reading the course literature assigned for the first part of this course, as well as with your active participation in classroom sessions. Reading material included in this examination task will be:

- Polly Higgins Earth is our Business
- Articles from the course reader under Part I: Sustainability—Why Change is Needed

The format of this examination will be revealed at the workshop. Good luck!
